Kate Brookfield x Vita Properties

present this beautifully renovated two-bedroom garden apartment in Kensal Green, NW10.

Guide price £700,000.00 - £725,000.00. Situated on the western end of Furness Road, this stylish home features its own private entrance, high ceilings, and spacious rooms throughout. Thoughtfully refurbished to blend modern living with period charm, the apartment retains elegant original fireplaces and boasts an abundance of natural light in both generously sized bedrooms.

A wide hallway includes convenient under-stairs storage, while the well-positioned bathroom sits neatly between the second bedroom and the main living area. The heart of the home is the impressive open-plan living space, showcasing a stunning kitchen with an island and bar seating, along with integrated appliances—including a wine fridge, smart hob, and oven.

A door to the side opens onto a private courtyard with additional outdoor storage. At the rear, large French doors lead to a newly landscaped private garden, perfect for relaxing or entertaining.

Ideally located just moments from Willesden Junction station, providing excellent transport links via the Bakerloo Line and London Overground.
