Positioned on one of the area's most peaceful, tree-lined streets, this beautifully reimagined Edwardian home offers a considered blend of timeless character and contemporary design.

Set behind an elegant red-brick façade, the property opens into a generous lateral layout with soaring 3m ceilings and zoned underfloor heating throughout — designed to feel both calm and effortlessly functional.

A striking 6m rear extension, clad in Vandersanden waterstruck brick, creates a full-width kitchen, dining, and living space under dramatic glass ceilings. Bespoke cabinetry by Dan McClark is paired with 30mm marble worktops, a Bora hob, Miele appliances, and a concealed full-height fridge and freezer. Sliding glass doors by Cortizo frame views of a landscaped garden with secure rear access and a separate studio — ideal as a guest space, home office, or creative retreat.

Throughout the home, thoughtful design takes centre stage: herringbone oak flooring, rich tonal finishes by Elizabeth Drewberry, and custom-built storage solutions are just a few of the details that set this property apart.

Three spacious double bedrooms are positioned for privacy and tranquillity, with the principal suite featuring bespoke wardrobes and refined styling. The bathrooms are finished to an exceptional standard with Claybrook and Mandarin Stone tiling, brushed nickel fixtures, bronze ironmongery, and handcrafted vanity units.

"I was very impressed with Vita and their network of buyers. When the sale of my flat fell through (twice) they worked extremely hard to find new buyers in a difficult market - thank you!"
