Presenting an exceptional opportunity, this substantial freehold house is currently configured as four self-contained flats and offers outstanding potential for investors and developers, subject to the necessary planning permissions. Positioned in a highly desirable setting just moments from the charm and character of Belsize Village, the property combines impressive proportions with a prestigious address.

A key highlight is the expansive west-facing garden, creating a peaceful and private outdoor retreat ideal for relaxing, entertaining guests, or undertaking further landscaping. This generous outside space greatly enhances the overall appeal and presents exciting scope for extension or improvement.

The location is superb, with easy access to local amenities and excellent transport connections. Belsize Village offers an appealing mix of independent boutiques, cafés, and restaurants, all within a short walk. Nearby Swiss Cottage Underground station and Finchley Road Underground station provide swift links across London via the Jubilee and Metropolitan lines. Whether seeking a significant family home, a lucrative rental investment, or a comprehensive redevelopment project, this property provides a rare canvas for transformation.
