

Parkhill Road

BELSIZE PARK, LONDON, NW3

£975,000

Set within an attractive period building on the highly regarded Parkhill Road, this two bedroom apartment offers a rare opportunity to acquire a characterful home in one of London's most sought after neighbourhoods.

From the outset, the property impresses with its generous period proportions, impressive ceiling heights and an abundance of natural light, enhanced by large sash windows. The result is a bright and sophisticated interior that retains a strong connection to the architectural character of the surrounding area.

The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged for both everyday living and entertaining. A generous reception room provides an inviting setting for relaxation and hosting, while a separate, fully fitted kitchen offers a practical yet stylish space for cooking. Together, the principal living areas create a natural sense of flow and emphasise the apartment's appealing lateral layout.

There are two well proportioned bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an adjoining dressing room, providing both additional storage and a touch of luxury. A well appointed bathroom serves the accommodation and completes the layout.

The apartment enjoys a peaceful position, yet is ideally placed for the extensive open spaces of Hampstead Heath, offering exceptional opportunities for walking, leisure and recreation. Hampstead, Belsize Park and Gospel Oak provide convenient access to Northern Line and Overground services, ensuring swift connections throughout London.

Offered with a Share of Freehold, this distinguished apartment combines period character, well proportioned accommodation and an enviable NW3 location, making it an appealing proposition for discerning buyers seeking a refined home in one of the capital's most desirable neighbourhoods.
